LANDLORD’S RESPONSIBILITIES
The Landlord Shall:
1. Maintain the premises to comply with all state and local statutes and codes that affect tenants’ health and safety.
2. Maintain all structural components.
3. Keep common and shared areas clean and safe.
4. Provide for control of insects, rodents and other pests, except when caused by tenant. (In single-family residences, landlord does not have to control infestations that occur during tenancy.)
5. Provide tenant with adequate keys and locks.
6. Maintain all electrical, plumbing, heating and other facilities provided by landlord.
7. Maintain dwelling in a weather tight condition.
9. Provide adequate heat, water and hot water.
10. Provide the name/address of the person who is the landlord either by statement or in the rental agreement
11. Notify tenant immediately of any change of landlord by mail or by updated posting.
12. Name an agent who resides in the county where landlord is located, as the landlord.
13. Provide adequate heat, water and hot water.
14. Provide smoke detectors and ensure they work properly when a new tenant moves in.
15. Set water heater at 120°F for a new tenant.
16. Provide receptacles for payments when requested by the tenant.
17. Provide tenants with the right of occupancy dependent upon their employment.
18. Renters of space in mobile home park. Renters of a mobile home and space may be covered.

TENANCY’S NOT COVERED BY THE LANDLORD-TENANT ACT
- Residence in an institution which is incidental to detention, medical or similar services.
- Occupancy under a bona fide earnest money agreement.
- Tenants who have exercised an option to buy. (Unexercised options are still covered.)
- Transient lodging: hotels, motels, etc.
- A family residence which is rented as part of an agreement to lease agricultural land.
- Housing for seasonal agricultural employees.
- Housing for a tenant/employee whose right of occupancy is dependent upon their employment.
- Tenancies not covered by the Housing for seasonal agricultural employees.
- Tenants who have exercised an option to buy.
- Occupancy under a bona fide earnest money agreement.

TENANCY’S RESPONSIBILITIES
The Tenant Shall:
1. Pay the rent and any utilities agreed upon.
2. Comply with rules properly published by landlord as well as all state and local laws and ordinances.
3. Keep the premises clean.
4. Properly dispose of all waste and eliminate pest infestation caused by tenant.
5. Leave the premises in as good a condition as they were at beginning of tenancy. Tenant is responsible for any damage caused during tenancy, except for reasonable wear and tear.
6. Provide the landlord with a key if tenant changes the locks.
7. Maintain smoke detectors in good working order.

The Tenant Shall Not:
1. Intentionally or negligently damage the premises or remove equipment from the premises.
2. Permit family or guests to damage the premises.
3. Permit a nuisance on the premises.
4. Unreasonably withhold consent for the landlord to enter the premises ($100 penalty per violation after written notice from landlord.)
5. Engage in or permit anyone else to engage in drug related activity on the premises.

DISCRIMINATION
Federal and state law prohibits discrimination in housing based on sex, race, creed/religion, marital status, families with children, national origin, disability, HIV status, military/veteran status, citizenship/immigration status, gender identity or sexual orientation. Violations should be reported to the DRC, the Washington State Human Rights Commission or the Federal HUD Hotline at 1-800-233-3247.

REPAIRS
1. A tenant must always be current in rent and utilities and must give the landlord written notice of a needed repair, which includes addressing rental property in order to use these remedies.
2. The landlord must commence repairs as soon as possible after receipt of written notice but not later than:
   - 24 hours to restore hot/cold water or heat or fix a life-threatening condition.
   - 72 hours to fix a refrigerator, range/oven or a major plumbing fixture.
   - 10 days in all other cases.
3. If the landlord is unable to comply with these limitations because of circumstances beyond their control, repairs may be made as soon as possible.

DEPOSITS
When Requesting a Deposit the Landlord Must:
1. Give a written rental agreement and provide an inspection checklist signed by both parties stating the condition and cleanliness of the premises.
2. Describe in the contract the conditions under which a deposit may be retained by the landlord.
3. Place deposits in a trust account in Washington and give the tenant a receipt indicating its location.
4. Within 21 days after tenant vacates, return the deposit with an itemized accounting for any amount withheld. (Placing the notice in the mail, first-class postage prepaid, within 21 days is sufficient.) Failure to comply renders the landlord liable for the full amount of the deposit plus attorneys’ fees. Courts MAY award up to 2 times the amount of the deposit in certain cases.
5. Not designate a nonrefundable fee as a deposit or include it in a deposit.
6. Not charge a tenant for normal cleaning if they have paid a nonrefundable cleaning fee.
RENT IN ESCROW

• If the landlord fails to give written notice to the tenant, the tenant may have the local government specific accounting for any deposits not returned. Without further obligation. The tenant shall be entitled to a pro rata refund of prepaid rent and a full and specific accounting for any deposits not returned. Rent in Escrow: If above repair provisions are inadequate, tenant may have the local government inspect and certify that a dangerous condition exists and, after notice, may place their rent in escrow. (This is a very technical section—get legal advice before using it)

REPAIR AND DEDUCT: If the repairs require a licensed or skilled repairperson, the tenant must:

• Give the landlord a good faith estimate from the repairperson, either by personal delivery or First-class mail.
• If the landlord fails to start repairs in the time noted in the ‘Repair Section’ of the lease, the tenant may contract with the repairperson to do the work.
• However, if the repair is one that has a 10 day waiting period, the tenant may not have the work done until 10 days after the landlord receives the required notice under “Repairs” above, or 2 days after the landlord receives the estimate, whichever is later.
• The tenant must give the landlord an opportunity to inspect the work.
• The tenant may deduct the cost of repairs from the next month’s rent. Deductions may not exceed 2 month’s rent per repair and not more than 2 month’s rent in any 12 month period.

SELF-Help Repairs: If cost of repairs will not exceed 1 month’s rent and a licensed or skilled repairperson is not required, tenancy may give written notice that they intend to make repairs themselves. No estimate is required for self-help repairs.
• If landlord does not start repairs within the time noted previously, the tenant may make the repairs in a workmanlike manner.
• After allowing landlord an opportunity to inspect the work, tenant may deduct all costs (labor and materials) from the next month’s rent.

The tenant may not deduct more than 1 month’s rent per repair or more than 1 month’s rent in any 12 month period under this provision.

HAVE RENT REDUCED: In cases of serious defects, a court or arbitrator may determine that rent should be reduced until defect is corrected.

MOVE OUT: If landlord does not make repairs in times noted previously, tenant may give written notice to the landlord, terminate the agreement and quit the premises without further obligation. The tenant shall be entitled to a pro rata refund of prepaid rent and a full and specific accounting for any deposits not returned. Rent in Escrow: If above repair provisions are inadequate, tenant may have the local government inspect and certify that a dangerous condition exists and, after notice, may place their rent in escrow.

(TENANT’S REMEDIES IF LANDLORD FAILS TO REPAIR:)

• Give the landlord a good faith estimate from the repairperson, either by personal delivery or First-class mail.
• If the landlord fails to start repairs in the time noted in the ‘Repair Section’ of the lease, the tenant may contract with the repairperson to do the work.
• However, if the repair is one that has a 10 day waiting period, the tenant may not have the work done until 10 days after the landlord receives the required notice under “Repairs” above, or 2 days after the landlord receives the estimate, whichever is later.
• The tenant must give the landlord an opportunity to inspect the work.
• The tenant may deduct the cost of repairs from the next month’s rent. Deductions may not exceed 2 month’s rent per repair and not more than 2 month’s rent in any 12 month period.

SELF-Help Repairs: If cost of repairs will not exceed 1 month’s rent and a licensed or skilled repairperson is not required, tenant may give written notice that they intend to make repairs themselves. No estimate is required for self-help repairs.
• If landlord does not start repairs within the time noted previously, the tenant may make the repairs in a workmanlike manner.
• After allowing landlord an opportunity to inspect the work, tenant may deduct all costs (labor and materials) from the next month’s rent.

The tenant may not deduct more than 1 month’s rent per repair or more than 1 month’s rent in any 12 month period under this provision.

HAVE RENT REDUCED: In cases of serious defects, a court or arbitrator may determine that rent should be reduced until defect is corrected.

MOVE OUT: If landlord does not make repairs in times noted previously, tenant may give written notice to the landlord, terminate the agreement and quit the premises without further obligation. The tenant shall be entitled to a pro rata refund of prepaid rent and a full and specific accounting for any deposits not returned. Rent in Escrow: If above repair provisions are inadequate, tenant may have the local government inspect and certify that a dangerous condition exists and, after notice, may place their rent in escrow. (This is a very technical section—get legal advice before using it)

Note: Landlord may not retaliate against the tenant for exercising their rights under the repair sections. See

TERMINATION OF TENANCY

1. A month-to-month tenancy is terminated by the tenant giving the landlord a written notice at least 20 days before the end of the rental period. Or by the landlord if there is cause (see RCW 59.18.650 section 2). If the owner is planning to demo, substantially renovate or change the use of the property, 120 days notice is required before the tenancy ends.
• A tenant lease is terminated by the tenant giving the landlord a written notice at least 20 days before the end of the lease. Or, generally speaking, by the landlord giving at least 60 days notice before the end of the lease period (some specific exceptions/conditions apply, see RCW 59.18.650 for more details).
• If a lease rolled over into a month-to-month rental, the month-to-month termination of tenancy rules apply.
• A tenant who is a member of the armed forces, or that tenant’s spouse or dependent may terminate a month-to-month rental agreement with less than 20 days’ notice if they receive reassignment or deployment orders that do not allow enough time for 20 days’ notice. The tenant shall provide notice of reassignment or deployment orders to the landlord no later than seven (7) days after receipt.

The landlord may terminate the tenancy on a shorter notice in the following situations:

• Failure to pay rent—14 day written notice to pay rent or vacate.
• Failure to correct a violation of the rental agreement or lease—10 day written notice to comply or vacate.
• Destruction of property, causing a nuisance, conducting an illegal business or engaging in drug-related activities—3 day written notice.

PROPER WRITTEN NOTICE

Proper written notice should include the address of rental property, and either be delivered in person or by using first class mail. You should always keep a copy for your records. Sending via certified mail, return receipt requested is also an option.

EVICTION/UNLAWFUL DETAINER

A tenant cannot be physically removed from the premises for any reason until the following process is completed: lockouts, turning off utilities, seizing tenant’s property, etc. are illegal.

• If tenant refuses to move after the tenancy has been terminated, landlord may bring a lawsuit, called an Unlawful Detainer action, to evict a tenant.
• Tenant must appear in court to protect their rights. If the court rules in favor of the landlord, the sheriff will be instructed to move the tenant out if they do not leave voluntarily.
• The tenant may be required to pay the landlord’s damages and attorney’s fees.

REQUIRED NOTICE TO TENANTS

• Landlords must provide tenants with information provided, or approved by the department of health about the health hazards associated with mold and information about how to control for mold. Information may be provided in written format individually to each tenant or posted in a visible location at the property.
• All rental agreements must provide the tenant with a written notice regarding sex offenders that contains the following information: NOTICE TO TENANT: INFORMATION REGARDING SEX OFFENDERS MAY BE OBTAINED FROM LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES. THIS NOTICE IS INTENDED ONLY TO INFORM YOU OF WHERE TO OBTAIN THIS INFORMATION AND IS NOT AN INDICATION OF THE PRESENCE OF REGISTERED SEX OFFENDERS.
