

Accredited by the American Association of Suicidology and the International Council of Helplines

Volunteers of America Western Washington staffs 988 to serve statewide, except King County and Spokane regions, who are served by partner organizations.