

Position Name: Food Bank Ambassador

Goal of Program: Educate, empower and engage new partnerships and resources in the community to ensure that children, seniors, adults and people with disabilities receive nutritional food to meet their most basic of needs.

Activities:

- Maintaining existing relationships by coordinating food and fund drives or other community events
- Brainstorming opportunities for new partnerships and developing relationships with outreach targets through food drives, speaking engagements, and volunteer opportunities
- Continually setting and reviewing goals for the Council to support the Greenwood Food Bank and the Greenwood Community Resource Center in outreach and resource development efforts
- Support Fundraising and Food Drive Goals outlined by Volunteers of America Western Washington

Benefits of Volunteering in this Program:

Help make a difference in your community, develop leadership and networking skills, gain further knowledge through additional trainings.

Requirements:

- Ability to lead or support events including food drives and fundraising or writing grants
- Strong organizational and communication skills
- Social, comfortable meeting new people and making new connections
- Comfortable speaking in front of small and large groups
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Flexibility with assignments and time commitment.

Commitment & Hours of Operation:

Food advocates should be expected to spend approximately 5-12 hours per month on Council-related work, including attendance at monthly Food Advocate Council meetings, Food Bank events, events hosted by community groups, and outreach/networking preparation and work. Required time will differ by the week, and members should have reasonable flexibility. Depending on the position, members may need to have evening, weekend or weekday availability.

Location: Seattle, WA, 98103

Opportunity Type: Hunger & Food Bank

Contact: Jill Whitehead - 425-259-3191 X13059